

I do not want the State of New York to manage or get involved in expanded health care. The State Government is not capable of this task. It will be another fiscal disaster. Where will the money come from?

Richard Shults